- ANGELS OF ALLAH -

It is part of our Aqeeda to believe in Angels. This is one of our core beliefs.

Unlike Humans and Jinn, Angels don't have free will. This means they must obey Allah.

Angels are made out of light (Noor).

Angels don't need sustenance. They don't have families and don't grow old. They don't have a gender.

Allah created countless angels and they come in different sizes and abilities.

They carry out different jobs Allah has given them.

- IMPORTANT ANGELS -

Jibrael: Brings Wahi or revelation to the prophets. He is responsible for delivering the divine message of Allah to the prophets.

Mikaeel: The angel of rain

Israfeel: Blows the trumpet which destroys everything on the Last day.

He will blow it again and everything will come back to life on the Day of Judgement.

Even now the trumpet is on his lips waiting for Allah to give him the command to blow it.

Izraeel: Angel of Death takes the soul of a person when their time has come to an end of Earth.

When the angel Izraeel comes to prophets, He seeks their permission before he takes their soul away.

Malik: Guardian of Jahannam (Hellfire). There are 19 angels that are assigned over the Hellfire and Malik is their leader.

Ridwan: Guardian of Paradise

Munkar and Nakir: Question a person in the grave. They ask the person who is your Lord who is your prophet and what is your religion.

Raqeeb: sits on the right shoulder of a person and records his good deeds. A deed is written when a person has made the intention to do something good.

Ateed: Sits on the left shoulder of a person and records his bad deeds.

When someone intends to do something bad this is not written as a bad deed until it is carried out.

- SEEING ANGEL -

Generally we can not see Angels unless Allah allows us.

For example, Angel Jibrael عليه السلام came to see Prophet Muhammad ﷺ and the Sahabah رضي الله عنهم who were gathered also saw him. This incident is recorded in the Hadith of Jibrael.

Angel Jibrael عليه السلام also took the form of a man and gave the news to Maryam عليها السلام about the birth of Isa عليه السلام.

When angel Jibrael عليه السلام came to Mount Noor to the cave and met Muhammad ﷺ. The angel took the form of a man.

Outside the cave, Muhammad ﷺ saw the angel in a different form, it had 600 wings and was so huge that it filled the heavens.

The angels came down and helped the believers in the battle of Badr. They fought alongside Muhammad ﷺ and his Sahabah.

The angels also came to the aid of Ibrahim عليه السلام and Allah commanded the fire to be cool.

- ANGELS MAKE DUA -

Some angels will come across a gathering of people remembering Allah and they will all collect at this blessed gathering and they will report to Allah.

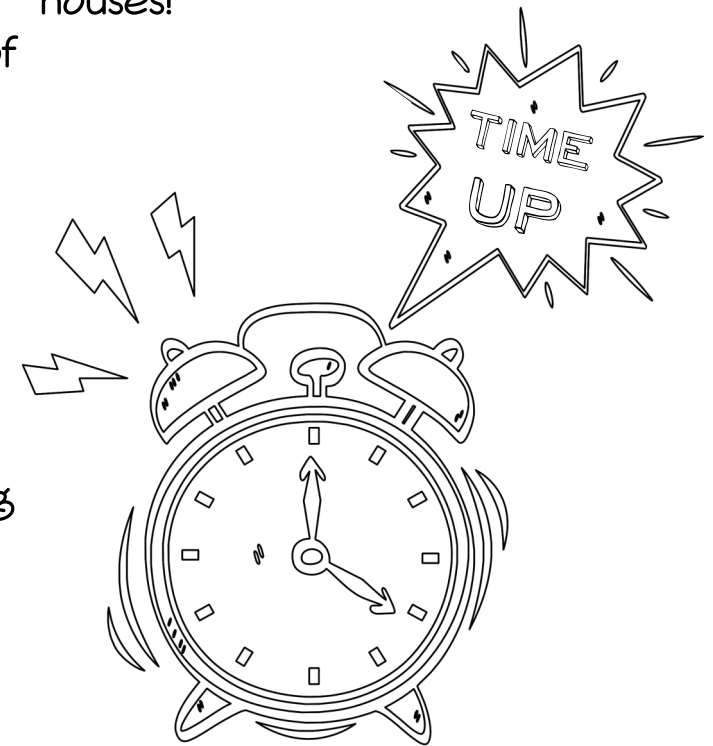

They make dua for this blessed gathering.

When a person is on a journey to gain knowledge, the angels make dua for that person.

- ANGELS OF RAHMA -

The Angel of Mercy will not enter the house of a person who has a pet dog, pictures or statues of living beings.

This is a reason we should refrain from keeping these items in our houses!
